What You'll Gain

Over the course of four 90-minute virtual sessions, participants will:

- Connect with peers facing similar workforce challenges
- Share successes, lessons learned, and emerging practices
- Gain practical tools and strategies to improve employee engagement, retention, and well-being
- Explore approaches informed by current workforce health and well-being trends
- Leave with actionable ideas that can be implemented within your organization

Please contact Mike Egan at egan@calcities.org if you have any questions.
