WHAT WE’RE HEARING IN THE FIELD

- Increased partisanship and polarization – at all levels of government
- Single issue/advocate candidates
- Hard to build relationships and trust during COVID – particularly with newly elected Councilmembers
- Increased negative public comment at Council meetings
- Continued crisis management

WHY LEADERSHIP & GOVERNANCE MATTERS

- California’s local governments face a myriad of challenges from housing and homelessness, to climate, to budget shortfalls to aging infrastructure.
- Elected leaders and staff cannot effectively address these challenges without a strong foundation of good government - trust, accountability, responsiveness and transparency.
- ILG’s Leadership and Governance pillar helps local government leaders build that foundation, develop leadership skills and increase public trust.

Whether your team is struggling with some of the challenges discussed above, or looking to go from good to great, the ILG team can help you meet those goals. Sessions are offered in both virtual and in-person formats.

Leading Local Webinar Series

- "Leading Local" is a new thought leadership forum from ILG that is focused on addressing difficult topics and sensitive issues local government leaders face. The free webinars cover a wide range of issues and share expert guidance offered by leaders from academia, government, and beyond. The content for each session will be specially curated for elected officials and staff at California cities, counties, and special districts. All sessions will be held virtually and free of charge.

Leadership and Governance Training

- ILG is developing virtual training for individual council members and executive staff on topics ranging from effective councils, civility, and community engagement. Registration for that training is expected to open by early fall.
