Harassment Prevention Training for Supervisors and Officials (AB 1661)

Wednesday, January 22, 8:00 – 10:00 a.m.

This informational and interactive workplace harassment prevention training will focus on current and emerging issues resulting from the #MeToo movement, and teach officials and supervisors how to identify, prevent, and properly respond to workplace harassment, discrimination, retaliation, and abusive conduct in order to avoid personal and agency liability in compliance with AB 1825/2053/1661 and SB 396.

Understanding Public Service Ethics Laws and Principles (AB 1234)

Friday, January 24, 9:30 - 11:30 a.m.

State law requires elected and appointed officials to receive two hours of training in specified ethics laws and principles every two years. Newly elected and appointed officials must receive this training within one year of becoming a public servant. Join a panel of experts as they help navigate the ethics laws and principles.

EDUCATIONAL SESSIONS

City of Dysfunction Junction — How to Conduct an Effective and Respectful Council Meeting

Enjoy a popular and hilarious skit, contrasting the wrong and the right ways to conduct your city council meetings.

Effective Advocacy & Key City Issues

Meet the League of California Cities' legislative team, and learn about the legislative goals, legislative calendar, and trending issues in the legislature. Lobbyists will also share ideas for establishing practical skills to develop persuasive arguments and testimony that will serve your city's interests.

Your Legal Powers and Obligations

You were elected to make things happen in your city. Learn the breadth, as well as the limitations of your powers as a city official. Acquire a basic understanding of the legal authorities and restrictions under which cities and city officials operate, with a focus on the Brown Act.

Financial Responsibilities and City Revenues

This session will address your responsibilities as elected officials in exercising fiduciary accountability and transparency in open government. Discuss the local government financial cycle, elected official financial oversight duties, and state and local funding relationships. The importance of structurally balanced budget tips for setting city council goals, and the need for financial policies will be addressed.

Policy Role in Land Use Planning

Land use planning is one of the most important aspects of a city official’s responsibilities because of the long-term impacts it can have on a community’s environment, economic vitality and the physical health of its residents. Learn about tools and processes in land use planning such as the general plan, zoning, and the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), as well as the role of regional agencies and the state. This knowledge will help you foster a solid working relationship with your city’s planning commission and planning staff.

Your League and How To Use It

As a city official, you are the League. Its success, along with your own, depends on your involvement and leadership. Receive an introduction to the services of the League of California Cities, how you can access them, and how you can become involved.

For speaker information, go to www.cacities.org/MayorsCouncilEd

Inquiring Minds Want to Know

Have a question that you are afraid to ask in a public meeting, or feel that you should already know the answer to? Join us in a safe and friendly environment to receive answers to your most pondered questions, and hear questions from your colleagues.

Relationship between City Council and City Management

As an elected official, there will be various competing values and priorities that drive you and your colleagues within your city. Your success on the council requires an effective relationship with your city manager, city attorney and staff, where everyone’s values are respected and represented. Learn how to work together while cultivating each of your diverse roles.

Communications and Civic Engagement

With constant advancements in social media over the last several years, it can be hard to keep up with the “do’s and don’ts” of every platform. There is a wide variety of almost immediate online informational sources, and elected officials need to be quick on their feet with the necessary skills to proactively manage public perceptions about local governmental affairs. Discover what cities should be doing to communicate with their constituents in the 21st century, and the rules that elected officials need to follow.

Registration & Housing Deadline: Tuesday, December 31, 2019
