

Los Angeles County Division Strategic Priorities

The Los Angeles County Division’s Board of Directors meet every fall to review the previous year’s accomplishments and adopt strategic goals for the following year. The Board of Directors adopted the following goals for 2023:

1. Support legislation, policies, funding and other resources that would improve public safety and address law enforcement challenges.
2. Support adequate funding and other resources to increase the supply of affordable housing and its required infrastructure.
3. Advocate for direct funding and other resources to address homelessness.
4. Support legislation and policies that protect and preserve local decision-making authority over land use, housing, and other matters traditionally reserved for cities. Oppose unfunded mandates and seek funding for prior unfunded mandates.
