The League of California Cities invites your interest for the position of:

Policy and Legislative Affairs Analyst

October 2023

Position Description: Policy and Legislative Affairs Analyst
The League of California Cities is looking for a talented and professional Policy and Legislative Affairs Analyst. This position provides complex administrative, analytical, and professional support in day-to-day operations of assigned program, department, policy committee and/or legislative activities. Performs research, analysis and duties supporting a variety of program areas including legislative services, grassroots lobbying, policy development, department, and educational programs. Provides logistical support for lobbying activities; fills in for lobbyists; attends meetings and hearings; testifies at legislative hearings on behalf of assigned lobbyists and Cal Cities. Collects, analyzes, and presents data; writes articles on complex policy issues; coordinates activities and information for task forces and policy development committees and serves as liaison between Cal Cities and member agencies and committees. Performs related duties as assigned.

Legislative Affairs Department
The Legislative Affairs department is fundamental to the Cal Cities mission to protect local control. Supporting the development of policy and advocating cities interests, the department serves a vital link in the exchange of information between city officials and the Legislature, Governor, state agencies and various interest groups. The department works to shape issues that are important to cities operating from the belief that advocacy and policy development are most effective through coalition building and collaboration.

Cal Cities
Headquartered in downtown Sacramento, since 1898 the League of California Cities has been an active partner in local government. Cal Cities mission is to expand and protect local control for cities through education and advocacy to enhance the quality of life for all Californians. Reflecting the diversity of California, each Cal Cities employee is a vital partner in the organization’s mission and success.

Cal Cities Culture
